

Beach Cities Symphony In Rehearsal

The Beach Cities Symphony Assn. is conducting a three-pronged activity program: symphony rehearsals, under the direction of Louis Palange are underway, new board members are in office and the association membership drive is on the boards.

The first Beach Cities Symphony concert is scheduled for Oct. 15 and will feature the Beethoven third symphony, Eroica, and Schumann's Concerto in A for piano and orchestra. Other scheduled concert dates are Nov. 29, Feb. 21 and April 24.

Backing the symphony's activities are new officers: Dr. George C. Andersen of Hermosa Beach, president; Mrs. Glenn Grossman, of Manhattan Beach, chairman of the board; George Cather, Mrs. Orville McCarrall, Peter Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Andersen, and Mrs. Kenneth Hunter, board members from Manhattan Beach. Torrance members are Mrs. Russell Clawson and Milton Makoski. Mrs. Milo Van Eaton represents Redondo Beach and Mrs. William Huckabee, Hermosa Beach.

MRS. MILO Van Eaton is conducting the membership drive. Individual memberships are $5 and patronships, entire families or a business, $25.

The association, though jointly sponsored by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors through the Music Commission, and a grant from the Recording Industries Trust Fund of the American Federation of Musicians, Local 47, needs the support of local residents, according to Mrs. Van Eaton, who urges all persons in the area to subscribe to this cultural community asset.

Further information may be obtained by phoning Jeanne Jefferson, orchestra manager, FR 5-2670. Orchestra brochures are available on request to persons not on mailing list.

'AFS Students Given Keys To Torrance

Mayor Albert Isen presented keys to the City of Torrance to three foreign exchange students Tuesday evening. The three students were visiting with the council meeting.

The three students were Hymie Luboff, who was also celebrating his 18th birthday, a student at Torrance High; Anne Marie Horn, a student at South High; and Clovis Bender, West High's first exchange student.

Each three accepted a key to the city and made a short thank-you speech. Mrs. Joseph Dock, president of the Torrance AFS chapter, introduced the students to the council.

Gospelaires Will Perform At Covenant

The Covenant Gospelaire Quartette will be featured at the 11 p.m. service at the Rolling Hills Covenant Church today. Local members, Evert and Mel Anderson, as well as Bob Swanson, First Covenant Church of Los Angeles, and David Rold, Inglewood Covenant Church, have appeared on many radio broadcasts in addition to appearing at Bible Camps and citywide programs. Charles Magnuso will accompany.

Other events will include the installation of Lurienne Bye as church secretary and youth director by the Rev. Robert A. Honette and the awards and promotion announcements by Mel Mygren, Sunday School superintendent, at 9:45.

Legal Ladies To Organize Area Chapter

Area legal secretaries will hold a dinner meeting, under the direction of Margaret E. White at the Jump 'n' Jack, 2300 Pacific Coast Highway, Thursday, at 6 p.m.

Purpose of the meeting is to establish a local chapter of the National Association of Legal Secretaries. Persons engaged in work of a legal nature are eligible. Information and reservations may be obtained by calling FA 8-3472.

SAXON SCHOLARS . . . Dr. Richard Guengerich, principal at North High School, congratulates Stuart Goodgold and Stephen Thomas after notifying the two students they had been selected as semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship competition. The two scholars will be competing with some 13,000 national high school students for grants and scholarships to go to college during the 1964-65 school year.

Two Saxons In National Merit Semis

Two North High School seniors have been named semi-finalists in the 1963-64 National Merit Scholarship competition.

Mount St. Mary's Presents Honors
Six June graduates of Bishop Montgomery High School received honors at entrance during academic convocation ceremonies at Mount St. Mary's College.

The two are part of a nation-wide group of students who scored in the top bracket of the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

The Saxon scholars are Stuart Goodgold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goodgold of 2702 W. 177th St.; and Stephen D. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas of 17020 Delia Ave.
If the two become finalists, they will be eligible for scholarship awards made by the National Merit Scholarship Corp. and some 175 other colleges, foundations, trusts, unions, corporations, and associations.

In the final phase of competition, Goodgold and Thomas will be evaluated on the basis of grades, creative abilities, leadership, extra-curricular activities, and test scores. More than 13,000 national students are involved in the semi-finalist program.
